

LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE DRAMATIC CHANGE FOR CHILDREN

Whenever you're delivering a talk, always let your audience know about the many exciting ways of getting involved. You can find full details of all these activities on our website and in leaflets available from the Speaking Out resources catalogue. Don't forget to leave some of our information leaflets with your audiences, and details of how they can contact Save the Children.

For Schools

Friendship Funday (For Primary only)

Friendship Funday is a day to celebrate friends and strengthen the 'friendly' ethos of your school. Register at our website for a free pack full of teaching suggestions, classroom activities and fundraising materials.

Wish List (For both Secondary and Primary)

Wish list gives schools the opportunity to choose a gift for a child and a community in one of the poorest places in the world.

Schools Emergency Network (Primary only)

The Network offers pupils the chance to understand emergencies. As part of the network, the school will be contacted when an emergency happens and asked to fundraise. The school receives emergency resources and teaching suggestions. They'll also have access to materials online.

Project Link (For both Secondary and Primary)

For schools who sign up to raise between £200 and £5000, their fundraising will be directed towards a particular project that we'll be able to provide regular updates on.

Tennis (For both Secondary and Primary)

Hundreds of Junior, adult and corporate tennis tournaments take place across the country in schools, tennis clubs and businesses as part of this nationwide tournament.

Giant Sleepover (For both Secondary and Primary)

Every year on one special Saturday in June, thousands of children all around the world will join together to have LOTS OF FUN and to raise bags of money for Save the Children. We also attempt to break the Guinness World Record for the 'biggest simultaneous sleepover across multiple locations'.

Student Enterprise Group (For Secondary only)

Being part of an Enterprise Group will give you a unique insight into our work and help young people to learn entrepreneurial skills. Register online to receive a pack.

Kroo Bay (For Secondary and Primary)

View our online interactive website and keep updated on life in Kroo Bay, a slum in Freetown, Sierra Leone. You can view our fantastic 360 degree photos, watch films and interviews, and read messages from children and families that are benefiting from Save the Children's work.

For Adult Groups

Fundraising with Save the Children

This guide is full of ideas and tips to inspire your fundraising for Save the Children. You can download this guide on our website or call Customer Support for a copy.

Online Shop

Our new online shop sells a range of wonderful gifts and children's wear.

Christmas Catalogue

Our catalogue sells a range of Christmas cards and gifts for everyone.

Have you got time?

This guide tells you all about the different ways you can volunteer with us. Fundraising, joining a local branch, working in a shop, holding an event, speaking out and campaigning – there's something for everyone.

Emergency Response Challenge

To experience first-hand the complexities of running an emergency response sign up to the emergency response challenge. We'll transport you to a secret location where you'll face a simulated disaster scenario. You'll need to make a plan of action, fast. The £625 you raise to take part will go to CEF.

Emergency Fundraisers' Network

The Emergency Fundraisers' Network is a network of volunteers across the UK, who respond immediately to Save the Children's emergency appeals by raising money quickly and saving lives. The faster the money comes in, the more lives we save. We need people who are creative and energetic, who can find dynamic and exciting ways to raise money when we need it. When you join the network we'll give you everything you'll need to be a great emergency fundraiser. We'll also keep you updated on all of our emergencies around the world. When disaster strikes, we'll send you an emergency alert so you can fundraise fast.

Speaking out

Children struggle to be heard. We're helping to change that. You speak out on their behalf. If you enjoy talking to new people and inspiring them, why not register as a speaker for Save the Children. You'll get access to great resources, training and support.
