

A CHILDREN'S CENTRE IN JORDAN

Meet the boys and girls of the children's centre in Jordan. They used to live in another country called Syria, but they had to leave their homes because it wasn't safe for them.

The children here are all three and four years old. The centre is a bit like nursery – it's a safe place where they can learn, play and have fun.

They're dressing up to celebrate finishing nursery.

Learning and playing at nursery means these children have a chance to grow up and be whatever they want to be!

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Why not use your activity sheet to draw what you want to be when you grow up.

At the centre, they also learn fun things they can do together at home with their parents.

What do you like doing at home with your mum and dad?
