

Save the Children Cymru already has a strong reputation in relation to the Welsh language, and we are delighted to have been recognised by the office of the Welsh Language Commissioner for our work.

Our 'Cynnig Cymraeg' (Welsh Language Offer)

- We welcome all forms and methods of communicating in Welsh. Speak in Welsh with us if you see us wearing the badge
- All our publications created in Wales will be available bilingually. Material created by Save the Children UK for a UK-wide audience will be created bilingually when it relates to issues in Wales
- We are able to communicate with the press and media in Welsh and Welsh is at the forefront of our social media platforms.
- We will do our best to provide spokespersons who can speak Welsh to come and talk to your organisation or school about our work.
- We need bilingual staff and volunteers to be able to achieve our goals. We will make every effort to support our staff to learn Welsh and in recruiting new staff.
